- l. Armed conflict between the local authorities, reinforced by the Militia, and the peacentary broke out in the village of Ucea de Sus and Ucea de Jos in Fageras County and in the village of Vladenia over autompts of local officials to seize the potatoe crop. Several peasants arrested in this dispute by local officials were forcibly freed by their neighbors. Militiamen summoned by the authorities then fired on the peasantry, who returned the fire. There were dead and wounded on both sides; five members of the Militia were killed in these outbreaks.
- 2. According to an official of the Ministry of Agriculture, there have been serious conflicts between the peasantry and local officials in Transylvania and Moldavia resulting from efforts of the authorities to prevent concealment of grain by peasants and to seize other agricultural produce.
- Peasants arrested in such clashes are moved by train to Tagi. It is believed that they are taken from Tagi to the USSM.
- 4. Names of Militiamen killed in rural outbreeks are constantly being added to the "honor roll" of members of the Militia killed in line of duty which is maintained at the Ministry of Interior.
